

New Poetry by Carol Graser: “Parkinson’s Triolet” and “Summer Isolation”

THE WIDENING FAULT / image by Amalie Flynn

Parkinson’s Triolet

I cup the base of your skull, catch precious cells spilling out like salt that seasons your limbs, your unholy lurches

I cup the drumbeat of us, mis catch the rhythm, drop plates with a crash You feed pills into the widening fault My palm on the back of your head catches our precarious marriage, heavy with salt

Summer Isolation

I paint the porch with strokes of blue diamond. By sunset, it's a veranda of green and you have fallen asleep at the shore of a lake that glaciers through your dreams. You wake with stones in your teeth and ice melting under your skin You arrive home with feet delighted by the verdancy at our entrance. We dig holes in the ground, nests for roots the width of thread. You shake ancient drops of water off your bones. When a ruby-throated hummingbird zips past
we see it
