

New Poetry from D.A. Gray: “Our Backyard Apocalypse”

We set small bowls of sugar water on the garden’s edge. Bees were scarce since the freeze which had almost finished what the pesticides had started. Still, some survived.

THERE’S A DROUGHT / image by Amalie Flynn

Hetch Hetchy

There are two signs on
The towel rack.

One says, "cozy" and explains that
The towel rack
Heats your towels.

It's next to the switch
That fires up
The electricity to the towel rack.
That fires up
The coal fired power plant.

The power plant
Sends up the gas.
Is the drought because the power plant
Sends up the gas?
Either way, there's a drought.

I looked down through that gas at the Hetch Hetchy reservoir.
White bathtub rings surround the low
Hetch Hetchy reservoir
Because of the drought.

The second sign on
The towel rack
Says they won't launder what's on
The towel rack.
Only what they find on the floor.

All the water in the city comes from The Hetch Hetchy.
They're conserving water from The Hetch Hetchy.
They hope you won't mind.

Enjoy your hot towels.

New Poetry from Lisa Stice: “Water Cycle”

No matter where we are, the oceans meet us in some form.

I am small and my daughter (who is only eight) – is even smaller and still, our dog is smaller yet, then there are those microscopic zoeand phytoplankton and the not so micro fish that eat them and so on

THE BROKEN SKIN / image by Amalie Flynn

Beatitudes I.

The Lord blessed us with knowledge. Twin curses, good and evil.

Why else plant the luscious tree there, where we were bound to find the fruit? The purple and shivering flesh never lacks in spirit. The ache and growl of our naked bellies are the price for the moment's delight. So, we gorge and the juice drips sticky down our chins. Let angels have the eternal heaviness of paradise; ours is the moment. The act, willful and with intent.

Advised of the penalties. Done poorly. Knowing this kingdom cannot last. Looking beyond the gardens for a more convincing view of heaven.

Beatitudes II.

Are we not also blessed, we who praise
the clear night and its silence?

Betrayed by the absence of stars, we mourn
a billion-years' light no longer burning.

We whimper at the withered grass burning, the breathing forest burning, the one great and living ocean boiling and burning.

You who created time, who is before all things, who will remain after the ruin, will you be waiting for us in the cool garden?

Will we lie down with you in the dew-damp grass?
Will we be comforted?

Beatitudes III.

Are the meek blessed tonight in their bundled and stinking shelters beneath frozen bridges? Are they blessed with patience in their waiting for the Lord of compassion? For the Lord that suffers with?

They suffer together. Their children will inherit the suffering of generations,
the split lip of submission, the broken skin of the earth.

Beatitudes IV.

Blessed. From a word that meant blood.
Latin for praise. Blood and praise to the hungry; they are weak.

Blood and praise for the thirsty. For those who bathe in fetid water.

What are words
to those who hunger in a gluttonous world?
To those who thirst beside the brackish rivers, choking on garbage? We say, wait for righteousness to come from above. But they have starved in their flesh so that our spirits could be filled.

Flow #150

SPIDER / 150

Thick in Louisiana swamps

Atchafalaya Basin

Hot cypress shooting out
Stretching in that bayou
Where pipelines
Pumping black gold oil
Cross across the swamp
Like spider veins.

Flow #151

TRACKS / 151

How I find tiny cuts
The skin of my inner Thighs outer lip my Labia
Cuts from his finger Nails small bloody Crescents

Like beetle tracks.

Flow #152

SPOIL / 152

Or deep in a swamp

How oil companies

Create canals

Push earth into piles

Push mud into banks

These spoil banks or

Dams

That block blocking

Water so it cannot

Flow.

Flow #153

CLAM / 153

The sky is full of trees

Now after

After he hits me over

The head

With a pipe metal pipe

Hard on

The crown of my skull

Bone and

Suture cracking like a

Clam shell.
